

Adjusted terms of use of the library

Please note:

- No entry if there are any signs of respiratory infection, fever, loss of taste and other suspected symptoms of COVID-19 infection.
- Wearing mouth-to-nose coverings in the library is mandatory, except at the desks in the upper reading room, PC pool, PC training room and study booths.
- Opening hours: Monday to Friday, 8am-10pm, Saturday/Sunday 9am-8pm.
- The number of people allowed in the library is limited and, in connection with a longer stay, restricted to members of the MHH.
- Eating and drinking is not permitted.

Lending

Items from the reading room can now be taken directly from the shelves again and checked out via the lending desk. Items from the stacks are ordered via the catalogue. Please show your library card at the circulation desk.

Returns

Please place your returns on the book trolley provided near the circulation desk. Return receipts cannot be issued. Check your user account on the next working day to ensure that all returned items have been properly cleared.

Reservations

You can pick up reserved books at the circulation desk. Please show your library card.

Reading room and PC pool

A reduced number of desks are available in the upper and lower reading rooms, the cubicles, the PC training room and the PC pool (the former group study room). In the lower reading room, a mask must also be worn at the desks.

Non-members of the MHH

Access to the study areas can currently only be granted to members of the MHH. Non-members can order materials by e-mail at information.bibliothek@mh-hannover.de from Monday to Thursday until 4pm and on Fridays until 3pm, or by calling the circulation desk at (0511) 532-3329 outside these times until 7.30pm. We make every effort to process orders quickly, at the latest by the following day.

We ask for your understanding for these measures, which serve your and our protection.

Feel free to contact us by phone at 0511-532-3326 or -3329 and by e-mail at information.bibliothek@mh-hannover.de or ortsleihe.bibliothek@mh-hannover.de.
