

Terms of use for semester lockers

In addition to the usage regulations of the MHH library, the following conditions apply:

- Semester lockers are only given to students at the MHH.
- The permission to use a semester locker is not transferable to other persons.
- Media from the holdings of the MHH Library may only be stored permanently in the semester lockers if they are booked to a user account. The borrowing receipt must be visibly deposited with the media.
- Media that cannot be borrowed, such as term papers or journals, must be returned daily to the location in the open access area or handed in at the circulation desk.
- Rare materials and special collections issued for supervised use in the reading room only may not be used in the study booths.
- The loss of the key must be reported immediately. The costs for the replacement are to be reimbursed by the user.
- If the key is not returned on time, overdue fines will be charged in accordance with those charged for borrowing books.
- Library staff and cleaning staff are authorized to open semester lockers for inspection and cleaning.
